Situated in a quiet, idyllic position this impressive mansion enjoys a setting on a raised slope with breathtaking panoramic sea views stretching as far as the coast of Marbella. Exclusive amenities of the property include a large living with high ceilings, leading onto the sun flooded dining room and offering direct access to the garden area with an amazing infinity pool. The basement level has a separate entrance, offering different opportunities for use - either as a self-contained apartment or office, including a spa area. The highlight of this luxury property is the designer guest villa with 141,05 m², a very contemporary two store house with the most superior built-in fittings. It is easy to understand that many of the world's successful business people are choosing the sought-after district of La Zagaleta as a place to live! Reduced from € 3.900.000!
