Apartment - Endearing Dwelling with Welcoming Warmth in charming surroundings & private garden!

 2  2  104,94 m²  125 m²

This delightful apartment on a raised ground floor is set in a well-kept residential complex, located in the midway between Malaga and Marbella. Attractive in quality, this property was built in 2002 to a good specification and its overall condition is practically like new. The floors have been laid with marble and parquet and a cozy fireplace fills the commodious living space with welcoming warmth. The living area boasts access to the southwest facing terrace with lovely views and the master bedroom with an en suite bathroom, equipped with a private sauna, also gives on to a relaxing terrace overlooking the private garden. A modern fully fitted kitchen and under floor heating throughout still further the attractiveness of this corner unit. A big community pool and the nearby tennis courts cater to recreational pleasures in charming surroundings! > SOLD!
